Ready For Business

J. Alex Lewis has already secured quarters for his repair department, which is in charge of Frank Upp. Space has been secured from the Chinook Drug Co., and that department will be running as usual hereafter. Mr. Lewis has removed all damaged goods to his residence, and as yet has made no plans for the future except as stated above.

Transfer Companies Unite

The Kenyon Transfer Co. and Thompson Transfer Co., which recently bought the Haussaker outfit, have combined and will hereafter do business under the name of The O. K. Transfer Company. The new company has a large equipment of teams and drays and are prepared to handle any and all the business of the city. Particular attention will be given to heavy freight and piano moving.

Farmers of Moderate Means Offered Rare Opportunity

An unusual opportunity is offered the farmer of moderate means to secure a home in the Lakeside Tract located on the North shore of Tule Lake. The land now offered for sale consists of 350 acres of irrigable land lying under the Adams canal, a part of the Klamath Project, and admirably located along the shore of the lake. It is rich sagebrush and grass land, part of it being in cultivation. It will be sold in tracts to suit purchasers and on satisfactory terms.

For particulars call on or address, J. Frank Adams, manager Lakeside Com. Tule Lake, Oregon.

To the Traveling Public

Reports are being generally circulated by interested parties that no passengers will be carried by the stage company handling the mails on the route between Pokegama and Klamath Falls. The same is being done for the sole purpose of injuring the stage company, for passengers by the mail wagon have one-third less staging than by any other line, the distance between this city and Keno being covered by a fast and comfortable launch.
